

THE LEADER'S MISSION

Go to that quiet part of you. Ignore the outside world for a short while and answer the following:

1. What has your life up to this point taught you?
2. What excites you?
3. What are you happiest about having accomplished in your life?
4. What is truly most important to you in your life? Why?
5. What is unique about you?
6. Why do you do what you do professionally?
7. Who are the people in history and in your life that you admire the most? Why?
8. If you could scream aloud to the world one thing that you really want to see changed what would that be?
9. How do you want to be remembered? What do you need to change now in your life to have that happen?
10. If money were no object what would you be doing?
11. What do you want to have in your life that is missing?
12. What do you want professionally? Why?
13. Imagine you are on your deathbed (a painless and serene one). A young person is asking what you wish you had accomplished. What would you answer? What do you regret not having done?
14. What are you here to share or teach to others?
15. Assuming for a moment you are here on this planet to accomplish something besides eating, sleeping and going to work, what would that be?
16. What do you imagine you could do for a vocation/avocation that would make you eager to get out of bed in the morning?
17. If you could do whatever you wanted what would that be?
18. What are some of the common elements in the previous answers?
19. What are some ideas you have for life purposes?
20. What are some ways you can change your life NOW (no matter how small) to start working in this direction?
21. What are some ways you can incorporate the above into your current work and company mission?
